ASHINGTON D. C. April 7.—

A complete revision of the tariff law; modification of the nation's currency system; proposals for Philippine independence, for repeal of the Panama canal free-toli repeal of the Panama canal free-toli provision and for the immediate construction of government owned railways in Alaska, are the chief problems confronting the first session of the Sixty-third congress, which convened at noon today.

Summoned by precident Wilson for the express purpose of revising the tariff, the new congress faces extreme pressure from many quarters for early action on the other subjects named. Whether any of these other than the tariff, will be taken up depends upon the progress made with the tariff revision, and the success that may attend the preliminary work upon a general currency reform bill.

Bemoval of all tariff from many articles of food and clothing; broad reductions in the rates of duty on all necessaries of life; an increase of tariff on many fuxuries; and a new income tax that would touch the pocket of every American citizen whose net income exceeds $1000, ard the striking features of the new Democratic tariff revision bill presented today to the house.

Sugar, Duty Free in 1816.

Sugar would be free of duty in 1815, the bill proposing an immediate 25 percent reduction and the removal of the remaining duty in 1816.

Raw wool would be made free at once, with a correspondingly heavy reduction in the tariff on all woolen goods.

Fight Expected Over Free Wool. Fight Expected Over Free Work.

The free wool proposal, backed by president Wilson and accepted by the house committee, is expected to provoke a severe fight within the Democratic ranks of both houses. It had not become clear today whether the Democratic opponents of free wool and free sugar in the senate would be able to force a compromise on one or both these items.

Direct Tax On Incomes. Direct Tax On Heomes.

The income tax which will transfer indirect taxes levied through the tariff into a direct tax upon the incomes of individual citizens and corporations, exempts all sums below $4000.

May Work All Summer

The probable length of the session is uncertain. Actual work upon tariff revision probably will begin tomorrow, with the consideration of the Underwood bill by the Democratic house members in caucus. Within a week it is expected that the tariff debate will be in full swing in the louse. Senate leaders do not exper the completion of tariff work before late in July. Should currency reform also be taken up at the present session, cungress will probably remain at work until autumn. Suffragets Bombard Congress. Corporation Tax Retained. 7 ASHINGTON, D. C., April 7 .-President Wilson's determination to read his own message displaced the tariff and the income tax as subjects of chief popular interest. sembled.

President Wilson intends to slip quietly away from the white house, with his message in his pocket and attended by probably only one secret service man, ride to his office almost immediately. Some of the president's friends say he may be expected to deliver all his principal messages to congress in the same way as his term goes on.

Spectator Interrupts Senate.

The strict formality that has characterized the opening of congress for years was shattered when a young man in the gallery of the senate tried to halt a recess of that body by crying "Mr. Chairman." Galleries were filled with women suffragets and for a little while it was thought the demonstration was part of the suffrage advance upon congress. The man, who gave his name as Geo. B. Clemmer, of Monroe, N. C., said be was a "Herald of the Prince of Feace." goes on.

Only Dignified Way, He Says.

President Wilson was asked today what motive impelled him to renew the custom of a century ago.

"The reasons are very simple," he said. "I think that it is the only dignified way for the president to address the houses at the opening of the session. Instead of sending the address up by messenger and letting the clork read it perfunctorily in the familiar clerk's tone of voice. I thought that the dignified and natural thing was to read it myself.

"It is a precedent which it is true has been discontinued a long time, but which is a very respectable precedent."

Wilson is "On the Fence."

President Wilson said he was "on the fence" as to whether the tariff should be revived schedule by schedule or in a single bill. Senators Simmons, Shively, Hughes, James, Stone, Williams and Gore. Democratic members of the senate finance committee, argued unanimously with the presidents for a schedule by schedule revision bill. At the conclusion of their argument the president said he would still further consider the matter before reaching a decision.

Single Hill is Favored.

The president had fairly made up Only Dignified Way, He Says.

For the first time in 18 years, congress assembled with both its branches under control of the Democrats, and with a Democratic president to cooperate in shaping its policies, and to approve its acts. The tariff law to be passed by the special session will be the first general Democratic revision of the revenue laws since the act of August 27, 1884, known to history as the "Wilson-Gorman law," and which president Cleveland allowed to become a law without his signature. Benches Before Desks

In place of the mahogany desks and swivel chairs to which members had clumg for many years, stiff rows of leather upholstered benches, arranged in semi-circles, filled the house chamber. The new bench system, somewhat similar to that of the British house of commons, gives no desk space at which members can write or work while in the house chamber.

C. B. Wood offered an order calling on the style, revision and compiliation committee to report out bills in the same order that they were referred. He stated that he would not have offered the order earlier in the session but did so at that time in order to expedite business.

When Wood had finished Cunniff took the floor and made a surprisingly mild talk against the order. He is chairman of the style, revision and compilation committee, by the way. RECEIPTS ISSUED New Mexico Senator Says Northern Mexico Favors Annexation With U.S.

> AMERICANS' LOSS IS $800,000,000

W ASHINGTON, D. C. April 7. ment at an early date conquers the rebel republic recently created by the seceding northern states of Mexthe seceging northern states of Arctico an attempt probably will be made to procure annexation or this northern territory to the United States, according to the opinion expressed by senator A. B. Fall, of New Mexico. Fall is a member of one of the special senate committees investigating revolutionary activity along the border.

North Favors America.

"Unless the horthern states swing"

"Unless the northern states swing the rest of Mexico to their position they will form a separate group of states permanently outside the old republic." Fall asserted. "Among the Mexicans in the states nearest the American border there is strong demand for annexation. The people there are somewhat Americanized and they want peace.

American Interests Enormous. "I have official figures showing that American interests own 42 per cent of the total wealth of Mexico. This is pretty well distributed over the republic. The money total approximates $1,057,000,000. Moxican railroad stocks and bonds are owned to the extent of 77 per cent by Americans, their total investment being cans, their total investment being close to $840,000,000. In mining the Americans' share is $222,000,000 as against only $7,000,000 held by Mex-icans. The Americans would probably favor annexation except for the fact that Mexican mining laws are much more favorable to concessionaires than are those of this country.

Damage In $800,000,000.

Senator Fall said estimates of damage to American property in Mexico by recent revolutions ran as high as $500,000,000.
